Nash, Yeatts marry

The wedding of Lisa Kay Nash and Roy Raymond Yeatts, Jr., took place on Saturday, September 25 at four o'clock in the afternoon at Centenary United Methodit CHurch in Madisonville..

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robet R. Nash of Pamplin. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Raymond Yeatts, Sr., of Farmville.

Clarence and Sally Bowen, pastors of the bride's church, performed the double ring ceremony. The vows were exchanged before an altar of palms and burning cathedral candles in a nine branch spiral candelabra with centerpieces of ivy, peach, silk tiger lilies, daisies and orange rosebuds. Lighted brass candlesticks, accented with daisies and lilies and ribbons marked the family pews.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Marie Harvey, pianist, presented a program of nuptial music. Miss Tamara Nash, cousin of the bride, sang "The Wedding Song" after the mothers were seated. Tamara sang, "A Wedding Prayer" as the benediction. The traditional wedding march was played for the processional and recessional.

The bride, escorted by her father, and given in marriage by her parents, wore a formal white gown of soft organza over issue taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a sweetheart neckline of venice lace with sequins and seed pearls to accent. The bishop sleeves were edged in alecon lace. Her full reffled skirt and chapel train were edged in the same lace. Her fingertip mantilla veil was attached to a matching cap. She carried a bouquet of silk white roses, carnations, lilies of the valley, apple blossoms, peach sweetheart roses, with ivy and white satin ribbon streamers.

Miss Frannie Gilbert, friend of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of peach polyester featuring a lace knit bodice and according pleated skirt and self tied belt. She wore silk daises and lilies of the valley in her hair. She carried a nosegay of silk flowers consisting of orange rosebuds, tiger lilies, beige and peach, daises with matching streamers.

Bridesmaids were Kay Bondurant, sister of the groom, Linda Vaughan, cousin of the bride, Sheila Fears, Angie Seay, Tammy Southall, and Rita Shorter, friends of the bride. They wore identical to the maid of honor and carried nosegays similar to the honor attendant.

Mr. Roy Raymond Yeatts, Sr., was his son's best man. The groomsmen were Ray Nash, brother of the bride, Michael Bondurant, brother-in-law of the groom, Garland Hatcher, cousin of the groom, Don Blessing, Carl Kernodle and David Scott, friends of the groom.

The groom wore a white tuxedo with a peach rosebud and lily of the valley boutonniere. The groomsmen wore brown tuxedoes with white ruffled shirts and peach silk rosebud buttonnieres.

Miss Julie Bondurant was flower girl. She is the niece of the groom. She wore a formal length gown of peach quiana knit overlayed in white lace and a peach satin belt. She wore daises and streamers in her hair. She carried a white wicker basket filled with white petals.

Barry Wayne VanDerVeer, friend of the bride, was ring bearer. He wore formal attire of brown and a silk peach rosebud boutonniere. He carried the rings on a white satin pillow, accented with a daisy corsage.

Christopher Michael Bondurant served as junior usher and escorted the honor guests. The honored guests were Mrs. Nellie Hatcher, maternal grandmother, and Mrs. David Yeatts, paternal grandmother of the groom.

Mrs. Nash chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of dusty rose lace chiffon and a silk corsage of copper lilies.

Mrs. Yeatts chose for her son's wedding a aqua quiana knit dress with a chiffon cape. She wore a corsage of white and yellow lilies.

Mrs. Louise Rosser was mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Nancy Van Der-Veer and Mrs. Margaret Garrison were mistresses of the reception.

Mrs. Jean Ramsey and Mrs. Nancy Hamilton were mistresses of decoration.

Miss Daphne Southall presided at the wedding guest book. Miss Terri Nash, cousin of the bride, presented each guest with a program of the wedding.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in the church social hall. The bride's table was covered with linen and featured a silk arrangement of lilies, daisies, rosebuds, assorted flowers, greens and peach candles for the centerpiece.

The three tiered wedding cake with a flowing fountain and two smaller wedding cakes on each side were served by Mrs. Lucille Hale and Mrs. mary Tucker, both aunts of the bride.

Others assisting with the punch and party foods were, Mary Yeatts, Joyce Yeatts, Teresa Christian, Doris Hatcher, Gail Yeatts, Lula Ashmen, Mable Campbell, Rose Lamberth, Judy Lamberth, Merle Nash, Gina Trent, and Shirley Downy. They all wore corsages of carnations in the wedding colors.

The guests were given rice cups by Miss Dawn Lamberth and Miss Susan Hamilton.

For her wedding trip, Lisa wore a suit of gray with matching accessories. She also wore her mother's corsage.

After a wedding trip to Myrtle beach, South Carolina, the couple will reside in Farmville.
